

RCWP Summer Institute Redux

NEW!

Advanced Institute, July 6-9, 2015

Join the first Summer Institute Redux! You have always wanted to recreate that summer institute experience, and this July, you can.

In this four-day workshop, we will follow the structure of an RCWP summer institute to share best practices, discuss pedagogical texts, and write for professional and personal purposes. We will have whole group discussions, grade-level chats in reading groups, sacred writing time, and meetings in writing groups. Just like your original RCWP experience!

Teachers will choose to read and discuss either Kelly Gallagher's new book, In the Best Interest of Students, or Katie Van Sluys' Becoming Writers in the Elementary Classroom: Visions and Decisions. Gallagher's book focuses more on secondary classrooms and Van Sluys' on elementary. To keep costs down, we ask that you get your own copy. Also, because we're only together for four days, please do the reading before July 6th.

The Summer Institute Redux is open to only RCWP alumni. RCWP will apply for SCECHs for this workshop, so hopefully those will be available to participants.

The Details:

Facilitator: Mitch Nobis

Time: 9:00 am – 3:30 pm, Monday-Thursday, July 6-9, 2015

Cost: Due to NWP grant funding, this year we're able to offer participants a free parking permit for a ramp or lot on MSU's campus PLUS a $50 stipend to honor your professionalism and help offset the costs of attending. Lunch will be on your own.

Location: Classroom 12C in Berkey Hall, which is between Olin Health Center and the new art museum on the MSU campus

Interested? Register at <http://goo.gl/forms/uYDD6dFYBR>
Have a question? Email Mitch Nobis at mnobis@gmail.com.

Registration deadline: June 1, 2015. Space is limited, so act now! Registration is on a first-come, first-served basis.

WRITE YOUR SEQUEL.